Welcome

Welcome dancers and parents to Seekonk Dance Center. This is our first newsletter of the season. All newsletters will be emailed, posted on the website, and bulletin boards. Newsletters are the BEST way to keep you informed. Please make sure your email is up-to-date with us. You will know if we have an email on file for you if you received this exact newsletter via email in September. If you did not receive an email, please contact the studio to update your contact information. SDC has a Facebook page!! Go online and become a fan today. We post a lot of reminders on the facebook page. Parents may also follow us on Instagram.

Class Evaluations

At this time all students are being evaluated and moved to correct classes, if you have any questions about your child's class placement please feel free to call or email the studio to speak with Ms. Shannon.

Smoothly Managing the Transition for You and your little Dancer

- Arrive to class a few minutes early.
- Have your child use the bathroom before class.
- Have your child dressed and ready to dance.
- Please let your child know if you will be leaving the center or if you will be in the waiting area
